

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

NEW FRANKLIN.

New Franklin July 9.—John Unkefer, of Alliance, was visiting with friends here last week.

Ace Emmons and wife, of Freeburg, were here, Friday.

The stork smiled on the home of Wade Rice, last Thursday. It was a girl.

Ed Early and family, of Alliance, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Unkefer on the Fourth.

Harriet Metz has recovered from a severe attack of face neuralgia.

Herman McCord will soon move to a farm near New Lisbon.

John Johnson, of Pittsburg, was visiting here on the Fourth.

Viola Whiteleather, formerly of this place, was calling on friends here last week.

Louis Glass returned from Reading to spend the Fourth.

Arthur Gallagher and Clayton Harter were at Malvern on the Fourth.

D. V. Whiteleather, of Columbiana City, Ind., was hunting up old friends here, Sunday and Monday.

Children's day at the M. E. has been called off through lack of interest in the exercises.

Dr. James Crowl of Minerva, was here, Monday.

Wade Rice was in Hanover on Monday.

Jack L. Unkefer, wife and son, Floyd, returned to their home in Cleveland Sunday, after a visit with friends here.

Charles Yeagley and family, of Homeworth, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Washington Nunemaker, Sunday.

Ananias Platz, of Lynchburg, has gone into the coal business with David Cooper, of this place.

Harry Walker and M. E. Tope were at Minerva, Tuesday.

New Franklin will play Paris a game of ball Saturday, on the latter's diamond.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fearn has returned from Canton for a few days.

HOSTETTER DISTRICT.

Hostetter District, July 8.—Harvey Hayman was a Canton visitor, Friday.

Miss Carrie Bettis visited her grandmother, Mrs. Wilson Early, several days this week.

A company is leasing land in this locality to test for oil.

A reunion of the Spoer family was held last week at the home of Cornelius Spoer. A brother of Mr. Spoer whom he had not seen for thirty years was in attendance.

Mildred Ford entertained her little friends, Grace Crowl and Nova Baughman, Monday.

Mrs. William Westfall, of Minerva, visited her parents last week.

Miss Ethel Hilbert, of Jewett, returned home, Friday, after an extended visit with her aunt and uncle.

Frank and Clyde Hayman and Clifford Carson spent Sunday with their friends, Orin and Clay Snook, of Bayard.

A number of people from here attended the children's day exercises at the Minerva Lutheran church, Sunday evening.

Otto Longley, of Carrollton, was calling on old friends here, Monday.

Mary Carson visited Canton friends on the Fourth.

Maurice Betz is about again, but unable to use the arm he recently injured.

Mrs. Della McCoy and two boys, of Cleveland, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harsh, over the Fourth.

Jacob Burger, Daniel Crowl and Andrew Ray spent the Fourth in Malvern.

Michael Worley has been confined to his bed the past week.

OSNABURG.

Osnaburg, July 8.—Henry Reed and family, of Akron, are spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed.

Rev. and Mrs. Hedges spent the latter part of last week in Salineville.

William Hedges spent the Fourth in New Philadelphia.

C. E. Boyer and J. C. Boyer spent the Fourth here.

Albert Rice spent the Fourth at Malvern.

Michael Rohrer spent the Fourth at Malvern.

Osnaburg will play the Simpson baseball team here on Saturday, and East Greenville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert West and son, Ralph, spent the Fourth in Cleveland.

Andrew Wheeling spent the Fourth here.

Rev. Hedges has his vacation during July.

Robert Hogan, of Canton, is spending a few days with his cousin, Eugene Bourquin.

Mrs. Sam Myers spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Martin Boyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leiptag and children spent the Fourth in Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rabenstein and children and Mrs. Samuel Dak and children spent Tuesday with their mother, Mrs. Mary Rabenstein.

Children's Day services will be held at the Reformed church Sunday night.

FREEBURG.

Freeburg, July 8.—Miss Rosa Smith, of Sparta, is visiting with friends here.

Willis Hartzell is very poorly at this writing.

Joe Reese and family, of Alliance, spent Sunday with his parents.

Miss Glays Hamm, of Pittsburg, is spending her vacation with friends in this vicinity.

John Summers, of East Rochester, visited a few days with his sister, Mrs. Stuckey.

Mr. Slusser and daughter, Mrs. Lee Weartler, of Louisville, have returned home, after spending several days at Amos Oyster's.

Jack Zepernick, wife and daughter are spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson.

Mrs. Charles Bowman and daughter, Lillian, of Alliance, are visiting at the home of E. M. Hahn.

Glen Lotz has been hired to teach school here the coming winter.

CARROLLTON.

Carrollton, July 9.—Isaac F. Cameron, who had been attending Harvard law school, is home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. George Hess and daughter, Miss Anna, of New Harrisburg, were in Carrollton on Tuesday.

H. E. Rondebusch, of Canton, is at home for a week's vacation.

E. J. Ferrell, of East Springfield, visited his sister, Mrs. Frank Swann, this week.

Miss Sina Stokesberry was taken to Charity hospital at Cleveland on Monday, where she will undergo an operation.

Mrs. Claude Reinhold, of Massillon, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. A. A. Wagner.

Wade H. Beatty returned on Tuesday from Cleveland, where he had been with Mrs. Beatty, who is in Charity hospital. Mrs. Beatty expects to return home the latter part of this week.

Ed S. Ferrall, of Corapolis, Pa., is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ferrall.

W. G. Shook and Earl Richards were at Cleveland on the Fourth.

Miss Celia Burger left this week for an extended visit in the west. She will visit her sister at Springfield, O., and relatives at Chicago.

She will then go to Baker City, Oregon, where she will remain for some time with her brother, George Burger, who has been there for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker and daughter, of Wheeling, W. Va., were guests of Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Mary F. Gregg, on West North street, several days last week.

Miss Rena Walls, an employee of the state hospital at Massillon, was a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Woodward, from Friday until Sunday afternoon.

George M. Hardesty, who is employed as a draftsman at Alliance, was with home folk from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. Walter DeBray, of Dunganon, is a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Birch.

Miss Emma Brandon, of Niles, was in Carrollton a short time Friday on her way to Harlem Springs to visit relatives.

C. H. Wagner, of Pittsburg, was with home folk over Sunday.

Miss Margaret Eddy, of Akron, was a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Westcott, over Sunday.

C. B. Scott, the Dell Roy auctioneer, was in Carrollton on Tuesday.

John Merrigan left Wednesday morning for Atlantic City, where he will attend the national convention of the Brotherhood of Operative Pottery of North America as delegate from the Carrollton local.

Miss Lizzie Smith, of Augusta, is a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mittel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fowler and children, of East Liverpool, visitors from Friday until Monday.

Miss Pearl Gould was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and family at New Philadelphia several days the latter part of last week.

Perry Hemming, of Malvern, and C. S. Tillet, who has been at Buckhannon, W. Va., for some time engaged in getting out the tract of timber that was purchased by a Carrollton company, were in Carrollton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafa Albough, of Dell Roy, attended the funeral of Harvey Atherton, Wednesday.

The Fourth of July was comparatively quiet in Carrollton. The business houses closed at noon. Two ball games with the Steubenville team was the only attraction for the ones who stayed at home. In the forenoon game Kerr, pitching for Carrollton, let the Ohio river boys down with three hits and shut them out to the tune of 5 to 0. In the afternoon the Steubenville team again went against some masterly pitching by Coleman, and were again beaten, 9 to 2. This makes the fifteenth straight victory for Coleman this season.

The High School team went to Dell Roy on Friday, and lost a well played game by a score of 3 to 3.

Miss Grace Kall died Friday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Kall, near town, and was buried Sunday afternoon in Grandview cemetery, Carrollton, the services being held in the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she was a member. Rev. C. W. Harshman officiating. Her death was due to consumption, and she had been sick for several weeks. She was about twenty-three years of age and is survived by her parents and several brothers.

Miss Kate McBurney, of near town, died Thursday night after a lingering illness from heart disease. She was buried Saturday afternoon in Grandview cemetery, Carrollton.

Harvey Atherton, who had been in ill health for some time, died at his home on North Lisbon street, Monday morning, and was buried in Grandview cemetery. The cause of his death was heart trouble and dropsy preceded some time ago by a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Atherton lived on a farm north of town until three years ago, when he purchased property and moved to town. Mr. Atherton was a carpenter by trade. The funeral services were held at his late home Wednesday forenoon and interment was made in Grandview cemetery. He was aged about 63 years and is survived by a wife, one son and four daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Herbruck, of Canton, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Cori this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford were Canton callers, Wednesday.

Mrs. Lydia Aeholtz is visiting friends at New Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brumbaugh are entertaining Ravenna friends this week.

Adam Augustine called on Kent friends, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl transacted business in Canton, Monday.

Mr. Patrick Lloyd and children visited friends and relatives in Canton several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Blair spent Saturday and Sunday in Alliance.

Daisy Augustine and Mrs. Roxy Young, of Kent, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frey, of Canton.

Alice Glenhen and her sister, Eunice, were Canton callers, Friday.

Youngstown—Frank Shank in divorce court broken up. When guest mistakes woman in white for ghost.

one of the organizers of the club. Mrs. A. Swope and Miss Jessie Evans entertained with a vocal duet. Lunch was served by the hostess. Guests of the evening were Mrs. J. E. Riley, of Elyria, Mrs. J. A. Schrantz and Miss Nell Coleman.

Miss Clarice Schiltz left Monday evening for Frostburg Md., in company with her father, E. B. Schiltz, and Mr. Miller, who had come to enjoy the Fourth. Miss Clarice will spend a few weeks in the east.

Mrs. J. E. Riley and son, Gerould, of Elyria, are guests of her father, J. J. Shook, and other friends.

Misses Marie and Louise Shook and brothers, Carl and Vincent, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shook, of Omaha, Neb., are visiting their grandfather, John J. Shook. They will spend part of their vacation here.

Mrs. Frank M. Evans is visiting friends in Salem.

Charles Coleman was home over the Fourth.

The Fourth passed off nicely with much noise and without any serious accident. Good sport at the ball field. Large crowd at the festival and witnessing the display of fireworks. The Green town band enlivened the time with music.

The Sunshine society picnicked at Springfield Lake, Wednesday, their annual outing.

At the meeting of the board of education of Plain township, the various applicants reported on by the committee on teachers were elected to serve the schools as follows: Charles Firestone, district No. 1; Daniel Garman, district No. 3; A. J. Willaman, district No. 4; Owen M. Shatzer, district No. 5; Walter Hill, district No. 6; Virgil Schory, district No. 7; John Delap, district No. 8; John Elbie, district No. 9; Jean Snyder, district No. 14. Nos. 2 and 13 are still unprovided. In the march of progress the board employed George Kreighbaum, superintendent of township schools. Bids for coal will soon be called for the coming year.

CANAL FULTON.

Canal Fulton, July 9.—Independence day was celebrated at this place by a baseball tournament. In the forenoon a game was played between the Browns and a strong team from Barborton, the Browns winning in a score of 6 to 5. Between 1 and 2 o'clock a number of foot races were pulled off, in which William Felmet Russell Brand and Worth Myers were the winners in the various classes. At 2 o'clock a ball game between a team from Doyleston and the Franklin Stars from Greensburg, which was won by Doyleston, score 2 to 1, after which the winners of the 2 games played for a $25 prize, which was won by the home team. Score, Fulton Browns, 5; Doyleston, 4. One hundred and seventy dollars was the receipts of the ball park during the three games. This will enable the association to pay their indebtedness and make still further improvements to the grand stand. The celebration served as a "home coming" for many former Fulton people. The following is a partial list: E. E. Porter and family, of Bellview; Earl Porter and family, Mrs. William Glunther, Miss Grace Tilton and friend, Mrs. Joseph Mayet, son John and daughter Rosa; Charles Stroble and family, of Cleveland; Miss Carrie Campbell, of Orrville; E. R. Hale and family, Ernest Forrow and family, of Akron; Clyde Emmons and family and Miss May Dewese, of Ashland; John McLaughlin and wife and William Shellenberger and family, of Pittsburg; Mrs. James Campbell, of Canton; John Murphy, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Johnston and Miss Tena Evans, of Detroit, and August Chouffee and family of Buffalo.

Andrew Holtz and daughter, Tillie, attended the funeral of a relative at Hubbard on Monday.

J. A. Mayer, of Brookfield, was in town on Monday evening.

Rev. J. Ferguson, of Wellington, preached a trial sermon in the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Breese, of Portland, Oregon, are enjoying a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Breese.

George Mulhouser and family left on Tuesday morning for Battle Creek, Mich., where they will spend a month visiting at the home of Mrs. Mulhouser's parents.

C. A. Vanderhoof and family left on Tuesday for Cleveland, where they will visit friends for a week.

David L. Housley, of Sandusky, and George F. Housley, of South Hadley, Mass., visited friends at this place, Monday, on Tuesday and Wednesday.

E. E. Shilling attended the funeral of a brother-in-law in Southern Indiana on Wednesday.

MIDDLEBRANCH.

Middlebranch, July 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welty spent Saturday and Sunday with Canton friends.

Mrs. Henry Frey spent several days in Kent last week.

Hattie Cori and friend, of Canton, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Cori, Saturday.

Dan Buchanan and C. M. Phillips were Canton callers, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frey, of New Baltimore, and Miss Bina Frey, of Cleveland, were guests of Mary Frey, Sunday.

Mrs. Adam Frey and Mrs. Jacob Frey, of Canton, called on Mrs. Katie Bair, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl entertained Canton and Louisville friends, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wise entertained Cleveland friends, Saturday.

Miss Glening, of Canton, formerly of Niles, O., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rutz, Sunday.

The Diamond Portland Cement Co. is building a new pump house.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob McCannan and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rutz visited relatives in Suffield, Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Werner has the typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Herbruck, of Canton, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Cori this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford were Canton callers, Wednesday.

Mrs. Lydia Aeholtz is visiting friends at New Berlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brumbaugh are entertaining Ravenna friends this week.

Adam Augustine called on Kent friends, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stahl transacted business in Canton, Monday.

Mr. Patrick Lloyd and children visited friends and relatives in Canton several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Blair spent Saturday and Sunday in Alliance.

Daisy Augustine and Mrs. Roxy Young, of Kent, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frey, of Canton.

Alice Glenhen and her sister, Eunice, were Canton callers, Friday.

Youngstown—Frank Shank in divorce court broken up. When guest mistakes woman in white for ghost.

WAYNEBURG.

Waynesburg, July 10.—Will Koonitz, of Canton, visited in town this week.

Miss Helen McCormick is visiting in Newmarket, this week.

The band gave a concert, Thursday evening which was highly enjoyed by everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ad Lewis returned to Canton, Wednesday.

Miss Belle Mottice is visiting in Canton this week.

Grace Dieringer visited in Canton this week.

Mr. Minner and Robert C. Jones were in Canton, Thursday, on business.

Herbert Jacob is visiting in Pittsburg this week.

Mr. Hawke, night operator at the tower here, has been transferred to Cleveland. He left Thursday morning.

Miss Jessie Miller is visiting this week at home.

Miss Banne Jacob is visiting in New Philadelphia this week.

Horn To Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mottice, of Canton, a daughter.

Hiram Davis, of Canton, visited his home this week.

Chester Parker had the misfortune to fall from a cherry tree and fracture his arm, Tuesday.

Mrs. Casady, of Alliance, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Anna Mong, this week.

A great many friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Lavina Mowla, Wednesday.

Frank McCormick and family, of Canton, spent Sunday here.

Leon Hostetter, of Canton, is visiting at Wagner's this week.

Rev. James Vankirk, of Youngstown, spent several days in town this week.

Mrs. Hannah Hamilton and Mrs. Mary Painter spent Friday at James Thompson's, east of town.

Christine Ellis and Mary Pence visited at Emanuel Finckel's this week.

Miss Emma Ward left Monday for Detroit, Mich., being called there by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Smith.

George Beatty received news on Monday of the sudden death of his cousin, George Beatty Hunter. The deceased was a very prominent citizen of New Philadelphia.

George Shaffner, of Canton, formerly night operator here, has been transferred to Alliance. His successor is Arthur Paulk.

Mr. Owens is in Cleveland this week on business.

Amos Sweet and wife were Canton visitors several days this week.

Mrs. Peter Huffman attended the funeral of Mrs. Adams, at Canal Dover, Monday.

Battist & Mayvoco had a grand opening of their new building, Friday.

Charles Koonitz, of Canton, visited friends and relatives in town this week.

John Belding and family, of Canton, visited several days this week at the home of Mrs. J. Ross, on East Lisbon street.

H. C. Downer was a business visitor in New York this week.

Mowla & Williams sacked three carloads of wool, Thursday.

Miss Cora Hamilton attended the sessions of the N. E. A. at Cleveland last week.

Thomas Wright, employed at the carriage works as a trimmer, spent Sunday at his home in Columbiana.

Mr. Norris, of Canton, was in town this week.

Leon Youmans, of Cleveland, spent Sunday with his parents.

John Rice returned last week from a two months' visit to his parents in Italy.

Janet Wilkinson left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Lisbon, Ohio.

The band, with a large number of friends, held a picnic in Zoar, Sunday.

Services at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 2 o'clock. A welcome awaits all who come.

M. E. church announcement for Sunday, July 12—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., superintendent, T. F. Williams.

Junior league at 7 p. m., superintendent, Mrs. Wilkinson. Preaching by the pastor at 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

Robert Williams, of Cleveland, returned home Thursday evening.

NEW ALEXANDER.

New Alexander, July 10.—Rev. Dunlap will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

Liza Knight, who has been visiting her son in Pennsylvania, has returned home.

Mrs. Frank Emmons and brother, Charles, of Canton, spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Jacob Weurtz, of Cleveland. Mrs. Weurtz is in very poor health.

Hazel Fubbs, of Ashtabula, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Liza Knight.

Mr. Wildman and daughter, Mrs. Ollie Muntzel, visited Mrs. Kenneth McArter, Monday.

Mrs. Dora Knight and daughter, Elsie, spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Homer Harbrough, of Winona.

Mrs. J. Dingley and daughter spent Sunday with Mrs. Joseph Wernet, of Adair.

Mr. and Mrs. Zora Barnes and daughter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Smith, of East Rochester.

William Wickerham, of East Liverpool, spent Sunday with his father, Mr. Wickerham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Summer entertained her brother Clarence Carl, of Adair, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Goner visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hime of Salem, Sunday.

Zepekirk, of Sebring, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Zepekirk.

Miss Gladys Kir